How do you guide them to make the right choices?

"Teenagers are like barbeque chicken. Just because they may look done on the outside does not mean they are done on the inside." Tyler Durman

Understand your teens and their world. What do you need to know about your teens (and their friends)? What can you do to avoid teen trouble? What do you do if you think your teen needs help? How do you guide them to make the right choices?

Detective Dan Finn, from the Santa Clarita Valley Sheriff's Station, will give parents a glimpse of what goes on in the teen world, including information about teen culture and local issues, and provide important insight so parents can stay informed and vigilant.

Tyler Durman, one of America's top speakers on teen issues, will address the myths and ideals of parenting today's teens and pre-teens. He will provide important tips and tools to help parents communicate and connect with their children, and prepare them to be successful adults.

All parents (even those with pre-teens) are welcome. It's not too early to be prepared!
